Terms and conditions

We are happy to reserve a date in your name from the first contact without obligation to you, thus allowing you to bring together all your arrangements. However, should another couple seek the same date, from that point we would contact you for a verbal confirmation, and a full deposit within 48 hours or we reserve the option to remove and replace any booking. In any event a day is only secure upon a £200.00 deposit, together with a signed agreement form agreeing to these terms and conditions.

Cancellation

The deposit will be retained in most cases, within 8 weeks of the wedding date a loss of 50% of any balance prepayment. This is a guideline; we will always listen to the circumstances, which in all cases will guide both parties to a fair solution.

Payment terms

£200 non-refundable deposit paid upon booking

8 weeks prior to the wedding, a sum equivalent to 50% of the invoice total will become due and payable

14 days to the wedding the total amount will be due and should be paid prior to the wedding day, as soon as the final numbers have been established.

Payments by credit card carry a 3% surcharge.

Menu and drinks

Menu and drinks requirements should be confirmed no later than 4 weeks prior to the wedding. Final Numbers should be confirmed no later than 21 days, with a final adjustment 14 days prior to the wedding

Reduction in numbers

When a booking is taken and accepted there is an expectation of numbers, both for evening and daytime guests, as outline by the bride and groom .Should the numbers be significantly below this, we reserve the right to notify you of a surcharge.

As a guide line, a drop of 20 would incur a £100 charge a drop of 40 would incur £200 charge

Brochure information

Every effort has been taken to ensure that the information in this brochure is correct and accurate, all details and arrangements discussed and agreed with the bride and groom may differ from the printed material to hand, and your choices are the basis for the final offering to you.
